RE: Application submitted for Lori Magliulo

Dear Jennifer,

In February of this year I submitted an application for a project titled: "Renew Expired Septic Permit". Owner Lori Magliulo, Planner; John Lavey, and myself met at our scheduled pre-conference March 6 @ 9am.

Lori's septic permit had expired; we were told she would have to go through "subdivision as lease or rent". She had to pay a $250 fee to have the pre-conference. It became apparent that under the new regulations it was not financially feasible to pursue the permit renewal.

I have two requests:

#1) Withdraw Lori Magliulo's application

#2) Refund $200 of the $250 fee.

Rationale: There is not a way for the public at this time to obtain documentation to make a determination on their own about whether their project is a valid candidate for review. The fee is extremely high for a "pre-conference" lasting approx. ½ hour.

I appreciate your consideration in this matter. With your approval please mail a refund to:
